Keep Pace With the Times

Your grandmother was wise in her day. She did her best with what she had. But fifty years have brought great improvements. Don't pay 40 to 50 cents a pound for a baking powder that's out of date.

K.C. BAKING POWDER

is a triumph of modern science. It is a perfect Baking Powder. It cannot fail. It makes everything lighter, more delicate, tastier. And it costs you less than half as much as the old-style powders—25 ounces for 25 cents an honest price for an honest baking powder.

Get a can on trial at once; money back if it isn't better. You can't afford to wait another day.
